TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

Between July and November 2007 I had the pleasure of working with Steve Greenoe, in my capacity as Managing Director of Galadari Investment Office (GIO).

Steve reported to me during that period and his work was predominantly in the area of business development for the organization. During this time he was the lead on projects within the UAE and outside the country with the objective of broadening the company's portfolio, particularly in the field of tourism and hospitality developments. His role required detailed and high-level liaison with international organizations and global leaders in the area of economic and political lobbying.

His wide-ranging international background was instrumental in forging close ties with these organizations and his inter-personal skills resulted in excellent cross-border relationships being established with a wide range of contacts involved in bringing these projects to market. His diverse language skills in particular were invaluable in dealing with his portfolio.

Steve is a young man of the highest integrity who brings energy and enthusiasm to his professional relationships. He demonstrated great sensitivity and maturity when representing the organization at the highest levels in international circles. He is resourceful and works efficiently, driven by his own initiative and pro-active attitude. He was an excellent colleague and team member and I wish him well in his future career endeavours.

Yours faithfully

Vivienne Noyes-Thomas
